Terri has a heart for the people and a passion to see them come into their fullest potential. This passion has been the driving force behind the years of experience and knowledge that she has acquired in Human Resources, Management, Training and Staff Development and Performance Improvement.

Currently Terri is the Executive Director of Human Resources for Victoria College. Terri serves Texas SHRM as the Workforce Readiness Director and has held the role of President for the local South Texas SHRM association for several years. She is also on the Board of the Texas Association of Community Colleges Human Resources Professionals (TACCHRP).

As a trainer, she has conducted numerous sessions on Staff and Organizational Development, Customer Service, Supervisory Skills, Motivational Classes and Leadership Training.

Terri takes pride in her community and enjoys serving as a volunteer leader and event coordinator for the Victory Christian Life Center, Victoria Chamber of Commerce, Keep Victoria Beautiful, Habitat for Humanity, Perpetual Help Home and many other local non-profit organizations.

Terri is married to Tommy Kurtz and together they have 3 children and one precious grandson. She resides in Inez.
