find your way to ABWA

Have you gotten lost along your career path? Does your current job give you a case of the blahs? Are you looking for a way to become inspired again? Then why not let ABWA help show you the way?

The American Business Women's Association was created because women need an environment where they can come together and pursue opportunities. ABWA provides the framework so you can focus and define your aspirations, with the support of others.

In ABWA, you'll become a member of a team of like-minded women who are all striving for success. Hundreds of ABWA leagues are working around the country, helping fellow members acquire new skills, expand their business knowledge and overcome challenges as they find new avenues to success. There's probably an ABWA chapter or Express Network right in your own community.

"ABWA has been an important part of my personal and professional life for 22 years. I have met lifelong friends, made workplace connections, learned uncountable skills and knowledge, and enjoyed myself immensely through my participation."

*—JoAnn Wickwire
member since 1992*

ABWA provides you with a safe haven to build and practice skills such as public speaking and team building and provides an organization where you can grow as a leader. As your confidence builds, you'll soon be applying your new knowledge in your workplace or in your job search.

ABWA is the only professional development organization for women offering a powerful proprietary online educational storehouse, the Women's Instructional Network (WIN), where you will find a huge cache of job-specific knowledge just waiting for you to dig into. In addition, you'll have access to unsurpassed educational opportunities such as:

- Regular MBA-level coursework prepared exclusively for ABWA members by business professors from the University of Kansas.
- College-level leadership training courses offered by instructors from Park University.
- Regional and national conferences where you will meet many proven business leaders who are ready to impart their lessons to you directly.

ABWA is an incomparable value for women business owners to grow within their companies or to build one of their own. In addition to the valuable skill development tools we provide, ABWA offers a supportive environment where you can learn from your peers and establish life-long friendships with women who share your values.

Become a part of ABWA and take charge of your future. It's time to invest in yourself!

René Street
ABWA Executive Director

Could you benefit from joining a prestigious, dynamic, and innovative organization?

As a member of ABWA, you will be a part of an organization making certain that women continue to move forward, understand new technology, embrace new concepts, and improve their leadership skills.

"Because of my ABWA membership, I have achieved more in my career than I ever expected to. The skills I learned by holding positions on our board over the years taught me leadership skills that I have used in my position here at work as a Director for our non-profit."

*—Mary Greppi
member since 1997*

"ABWA offers both networking and educational opportunities for women of all ages. It affords young women the opportunity to learn from more experienced business owners and professionals, sharing new ideas and learning experiences."

*—Kathie Hubbard

association facts

The mission of the American Business Women's Association is to bring together businesswomen of diverse occupations and to provide opportunities for them to help themselves and others grow personally and professionally through leadership, education, networking support, and national recognition.

HISTORY

The American Business Women's Association was established in 1949 to give women like you access to leadership, networking, and recognition opportunities—the three basic elements of career achievement. Through online business courses, insightful and timely seminars, and the opportunity to be part of both a local and national organization, ABWA has become the place to be for women who want to connect, learn and grow.

Become part of a national women's organization that has made a difference for women for more than 62 years. Join the American Business Women's Association today!

ABWA is a prestigious organization made up of working women across the nation. Hundreds of Chapters and Express Networks throughout the U.S. offer monthly networking and professional development programs.

STEPHEN BUFTON MEMORIAL EDUCATIONAL FUND

NATIONAL SCHOLARSHIPS, OUTRIGHT GRANTS, AND BUSINESS SKILLS TUITION REIMBURSEMENTS

The Stephen Bufton Memorial Educational Fund (SBMEF) has been assisting women to succeed in higher education ever since its inception in 1953. Today it is considered one of the country's most highly respected grant and scholarship programs for women.

SBMEF assists women who are pursuing advanced educational goals to achieve both business and professional success; to become role models, mentors, and leaders for the future. Since it was established in 1953, the fund's Board of Trustees has awarded more than $16 million in scholarships to more than 16,000 women thanks to the generous contributions of ABWA members.

Selection of scholarship winners in communities across the United States has grown into one of ABWA's favorite and most long-standing traditions for national scholarships, outright grants, and business skills tuition reimbursements.

ABWA's educational fund has four different scholarship programs to support women in their pursuit of knowledge: National Scholarship, Outright Grant, Business Skills Tuition Reimbursement, and Impact Scholarship. Each scholarship program has a unique set of guidelines, applicant eligibility requirements, and procedures. To participate in one or all of these scholarship programs, the sponsoring league and the applicant must comply with the requirements of each program. To learn more about each program or how to participate, visit the website at: www.sbmf.org or direct your inquiries to webmail@sbmf.org.

the "IN" crowd

Women In Business®, the official magazine of ABWA, is a publication dedicated to helping women stay current with the issues that affect them both inside and outside the workplace. As women continue to transform the places where they live and work, Women In Business is the one resource full of relevant, inspirational information, tips and ideas for real women working and living in the real world.

"ABWA has helped me to gain confidence in myself and my abilities. I have gained vital experience in networking that has helped me in ABWA, workplace and other organizations. My membership is invaluable."

*—Shirley New

CONNECTING WITH WOMEN

ABWA's publication, Women In Business, creates an opportunity for members to learn more about topics that have high interest to working women and high relevance to the Association's mission. The magazine explores topics ranging from building your personal brand online to managing your health in winter, from struggles with the current economic forecast to overcoming the unstable job market, from finding a new way to do business to keeping you in style without breaking the budget, and so much more.

ABWA also utilizes the publication as an opportunity to recognize the accomplishments of members and share lessons learned from successful business leaders like Congresswoman Carolyn Maloney and U.S. Surgeon General Dr. Regina Benjamin, basketball coach Pat Summitt, presidential daughter Jenna Hager Bush, and TV host and author JJ Ramburg. You will learn about the latest additions to the Women's Instructional Network and stay on top of Association news. Each issue also includes a Food column written by James Beard Award-winning Executive Chef Debbie Gold as well as a Personal Portfolio department that features timely articles like "The First 100 Days After Losing Your Job," "Every Resume Tells a Story," and "A Checklist for Starting Your Own Business."

In the summer issue, attention turns to ABWA's National Women's Leadership Conference with a special section of the magazine dedicated to speakers, entertainment, luncheons, and seminars. Women In Business is foremost about what matters to working women but also expands into areas that help women balance the personal with the professional.
